Pastor's Corner

The Latin, Cum Pane (with bread) gives us the English words “company” and “companion”. We usually eat with friends and family, don't we? I remember clearly as a child sitting at table with my family for what we called Sunday dinner. It was really a late lunch as we ate around 3 p.m. and was generally a roast, in more ways than one. No one got up from the table until we were all finished and we had lots to chat about regarding the week past and the week ahead. Since there were eight of us, including the parents, I doubt we got everything said that we wanted but it was a mostly happy occasion and I think we all looked forward to it.

Jesus invites us all to the most important meal of our week and, although some still leave the table early, most stay and are better for it. He is both host and meal and our faith is hopefully reinvigorated by the experience. We pray together as a family, we can plan good things for the week ahead and we, and hopefully the world around us, benefit from our religious experience.

We are thankful for the lord's invitation to share in the feast and hopefully it makes a difference in our lives. Let us focus on renewing our gratitude for our invitation to the heavenly banquet by a renewal of our faith.

Stewardship

God invites us in so many ways to become close to Him, to answer His invitation and to embrace stewardship as a way of life. This invitation comes to us constantly through Holy Scripture, especially through the Gospel. How many of us hear the Word, but then just go back to our lives as they were before? Stewardship entails listening, hearing, reflecting and acting in a way that will produce good fruit for the vineyard.
