Pastor's Corner

This Weekend we celebrate with great joy in both our parishes the First Holy Communion of several of our young Catholics. The Eucharist is the keeping of Our Lord's promise that He would remain with us 'always until the end of the world'. It is up to us adults to assure our young that Jesus is indeed with us and most especially in the Holy Eucharist.

Doubtless our children will be dressed to the nines, boys looking handsome in their shirts and ties – even some suits maybe - and girls very pretty in their white dresses, etc. This is a special day, a day of great rejoicing for the children and the family and all kinds of gifts will be given. But let us not forget the greatest gift they are receiving for the first time from God Himself, His sharing of His only and most loving and loved Son.

Parents must keep their promises to God and their children, made at baptism, that they will encourage and foster nourishment and formation in the practices of the faith. Communion is not a “one off” experience, we must ensure that our children are brought to Mass each and every Sunday and that this is the number one priority in life. The Eucharist is after all the very” Source and Summit’ of our faith. God bless you all.

Stewardship Reflection

Today Jesus makes a point of making it clear to His followers and to us that He is not just saying “Peace” or “Shalom” the way people usually do, as a polite greeting or when bidding someone farewell, no, from Him it is filled with more strength and meaning. Jesus is telling us that He, through the Holy Spirit, will always be with us, stand next to us, and strengthen us. That is something we must believe. Trusting in the Lord is a key aspect of stewardship.

Stewardship of Treasure

Totals will be in next week.
