Pastor's Corner

In our first reading today Moses talks of God's law as being that which if followed would demonstrate intelligence and wisdom. James in the second reading is very practical and tells us that faith without works is dead. We should not just be those who pay God lip service or who are just hearers and spectators to things of the faith. Jesus, in the Gospel gives a long list today of human tendencies towards sinfulness and things that we struggle against in term of sins. These are why Jesus comes to us. He helps us to have love in our hearts – love of God and each other. The relying on Him, we are able to live joyfully and productively in the ways of the faith. God bless you all.

Stewardship Reflection

Moses addresses the hypocrites and their practice of faith. James, too, reminds us that what we do is more important than merely giving the show of faith: "Be doers of the word, and not hearers only". The Lord says, "This people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me." He goes on to say, "You disregard God's commandment, but cling to human tradition." Jesus' apprehension is that each of us needs to be cleansed from the inside out, not from the outside in. Our faith, our practice of our faith, is only genuine if it comes from the heart. One of the adages associated with stewardship is that we need to "possess loosely".
