Pastor's Corner

In the first reading today we see a second story or metaphor of creation. God created us and while the “how” may be shrouded in mystery, the “why” was made clear to us old ones in our Baltimore catechism: “God made me to know Him, to love Him and to serve Him in this world and to be happy with him forever in the next.” The “me” can become “we” as we, in community, are called to act as the family of man borne out of love. We are called to stewardship.

See how Adam is permitted to name all the creatures of the earth, thus showing his dominion, in partnership with God, over the earth. The female – Eve – is an extension of his very self; equal partners making up the whole which is Man, dependent on the creating and sustaining God. The core of this relationship must be unity.

Marriage is real/symbolic: It is a vital part of our society because it emanates from a position of inclusion; men and women working together to produce good fruit. This union also, and very importantly, symbolizes the desired intimacy of God with His people.

As stewards, we are responsible for our parish and for its pastoral, educational, liturgical and spiritual outreach. We, men, women and children, should work with our pastor with our time, talent and treasure to produce something beautiful for God, ourselves and our neighbors. God bless you all.

Stewardship Reflection

Two lessons from today's gospel: 1) We, primarily parents, are responsible, as stewards, for the children of our faith community. Each of us who is baptized, and therefore a vital part of the Body of Christ, shares in stewarding these little ones, in raising and forming them.

2) Small children, infants in particular, are largely helpless. We need the Lord. If we put our lives into God's Hands, like a child, we are more likely to “inherit the kingdom”. Jesus is telling us to trust Him, and that will help us to be the stewards and disciples we are expected to be.

STEWARDSHIP FOR FARMERS: Just a thought: You can see St. Bernard's is down with regard to our church support – and we have still a large amount of debt for our building to pay off. Why not, in the upcoming season of harvesting and thanksgiving, set aside a healthy number of bushels for the Lord. It has been a good year for many farmers. Let us give a little extra expression of thanks. St. Bernard's has its own account at the American Co-op. I'm sure St. Bridget's has something similar. Again: Just a thought. Fr.W.

Our Parishes

October is Respect Life Month: Life is a gift from God. Sometimes the gift comes at a difficult time. Catholic Charities reaches out to women in a crisis situation with a 24/7 pregnancy information line to help and support women to choose life for their baby. Assist this funding by taking a baby bottle home on Respect Life Sunday, October 4, and filling it with your spare change during the month of October.

Life and Dignity Sunday – October 11: The bishops of Minnesota established the Minnesota Catholic Conference (MCC) Catholic Advocacy Network to develop a strong, compassionate, moral voice for life, dignity and justice in our state. Next weekend, during Life and Dignity Sunday, all parishioners will have an opportunity to register for the network. Consider being a part of this important effort to build a Diocesan and statewide community of Catholics who stand together as a positive force for good in Minnesota.

Have you moved? Are you planning to move? Don't forget to send a quick message to the office to let us know so we can update our records.

First Friday Visits: Father had to change to the second Friday, October 9, to visit and bring Communion.

Religious Ed News

Religious Ed Classes: Wednesday, October 7 from 5:15-6:15 pm for the first session and 6:30-7:30 pm for the later classes.

New Servers: Some of you have already logged in and used the online ministry scheduler. Those who have not, check your spam folder in your email to be sure you received the introductory link to get started in the program. We don't want to wait too long after server training to get your son or daughter scheduled. If you have questions about the ministry scheduler, contact Pam at stbernard116@aol.com or 533-8257.

Men of the Parish: Join the Men's Club for a fun night with food and refreshments on Tuesday, October 6. We will meet at Bear Cave Park at 6:00 pm for pizza and beverages. RSVP to Scott (533-6692 srchrh@yahoo.com) as it would be helpful for knowing how much pizza to order. Bring horseshoes or frisbees if you have them. (Please note, the time and place has been changed from the previous bulletin announcement)

Youth Contribution Envelopes: Parents, pick up a box of envelopes on the table in the gathering space. Teach your children to be good stewards of our parish.
