Pastor's Corner

Jesus tells us clearly in the gospel today that His commandments are based on us loving one another. Love is a much used word in our language and though often a valid and positive sentiment, Jesus is talking about His love which is deeper and longer lasting. The love He has for us is the love we must extend to others – and of course to God. Our faith in Jesus must be in our hearts and reach the people of all nations.

“It was I who chose you” Jesus says and so we should not cling to our old ways but cling to his ideas, even if sometimes they prove temporarily fruitless. We should open our hearts, minds and lives to all Jesus offers us. Thus we remain in His love.

This Sunday a number of our children will receive Jesus for the first time as Holy Communion. May they grow in Jesus' love. God bless you all.

Stewardship Reflection

“While Peter was still speaking these things, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who were listening to the word.” St. Peter is later criticized for entering the house of a Gentile, eating, and then baptizing Cornelius, but in Acts 11 Peter responds, “If then God gave them the same gift he gave to us when we came to believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I to be able to hinder God?” God is there for all of us, but we must receive Him and open our lives to Him as good stewards.
